UNCOVERS GOOD JUVENILE

WILLIAM GARTH SHOWS UP A LIKELY COLT IN THE MASQUERADER.

Youngster Is Owned by Ral Parr and Wins His Initial Start in Close to Track Record Time at Havre de Grace-Wilson Stable Doubles, Havre de Grace, Md., April 29.—William Garth showed up a likely-looking two-year-old in the second race here this afternoon in Ral Parr's The Masquerader, a colt by Ogden-Masquerader, that was making his initial effort. The Masquerader was heavily supported and won his race in little better than an exercise gallop in time that was close to the track record for four and a half furlongs. He was ridden by Butwell, went around his company on the outside after a rather slow break and, after racing well in hand to the stretch turn, drew away into a long lead. He is a good-looking bay colt built on the compact order. He is said to have been highly tried over the Benning track last spring and his race this afternoon warrants the assertion that he is a first-class racer.

The Wilson horses, which showed up so poorly in the early days of the meeting, are coming into their own now. T. J. Healey saddled two winners this afternoon in Yellow Eyes and Pomette Bleu. The latter beat a band of smart three-year-olds in the five and a half furlongs handicap. The track was fast and the attendance large.

Aunouncement has been made by the Westchester Racing Association of dates for the running of the lixtures of the Belmont Park meeting, which opens May 26, as follows: Metropolitan Haudicap and New York Steeplechase, May 26; Juvenfle, May 27; Ladies and Withers, May 28; Anateur Cup and International Steeplechase, May 30; Bouquet, June 10; Toboggan, June 11; Keene Memorial, June 13; Fashion, June 16; Harlem, June 18; Belmont June 20.

Tom Shaw has obtained the betting ring privileges for the meeting at Marlboro, which is to begin June 6 and continue for ten days. It has been decided that there will be seven races a day over the half mile course and that not less than $2,100 will be distributed daily among the horsemen. Special attention will also be paid to the steeplechasing. Steeplechase jockey W. Keating, while schooling Mrs. A. M. N. Singer's Farmer Joe at Pimlico this morning, had a fall that resulted in a broken collarbone.

W. A. Read, president of the Denver Fair and Racling Association, is here doing missionary work for the far western circuit and is meeting with success in inducing horsemen to ship to that part of the country. In addition to the racing at Denver from June 13 to July 4, there will follow a circuit at Butte. Anaconda, Vancouver and back to Denver again that will keep the horses employed until October 10.

Richard E. Watkins and Joe Reilly were arrivals from New York today. Watkins brought over six borses with him, but they were shipped direct to Pimileo, where they will first be raced.

Starter Ed Tribe, who will officiate at the Denver meeting, was offered a like position at Butte and Anaconda, on the same circuit, but was unable to accept on account of other engagements. Starter Tribe has also been engaged to do the starting at Vancouver.

Late arrivals at Woodbine for the approaching Canadian season include O. Obernesser's Percy Ryan and J. G. Gorman's Calumny. Marybud and Gerald G. The last-named is a candidate for the King's Plate. Mike Gorman is due in a day or two from Ottawa with Battle Song and Voivode. Training operations at the Woodbine track are still slow because the going is not yet normal. It may be expected that there will be distinct progress in this direction within a few days, however.

direction within a few days, however.

Rey el Santa Anita, 22-year-old stallion that was one of the most famous horses in the late E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin's stable, was awarded first prize in the breeders' class at the recent Pasadena horse show. The veteran of the Baldwin stable defeated a large lot of entries in the breeding class as the best stallion suitable to get polo ponies. The great Derby winner that brought a fortune to "Lucky" Baldwin nearly twenty years ago pranced about the ring with surprising agility considering his years. In 1894 Rey el Santa Anita won the American Derby at Washington Park.

The concern that has been repeatedly expressed over the non-announcement of the reasons for the refusal of licenses to jockeys Borel, Small, Goose and several others in Kentucky seems quite unnecessary. The commissioners, no doubt, declined the applications for the sufficient reason that they considered the applicants not deserving of licenses, And the commissioners were appointed to exercise their own discretion, not that of others. From all that can be heard the Kentucky authorities only anticipated the action of the Canadian Racing Associations in the cases of several of the riders who are on the ground as a result of this action.—Francis Nelson in Toronto Globe.

The good or evil of the possible introduction of the totalisator in New South Wales is the subject of a deal of discussion in Australian sporting circles at the present time. With the government badly in need of money it was thought by many that a bill for its legalization was nearly certain to have been portion of the Ministerial program, but members of the cabinet were at variance on the point when it was discussed, and evidently the anti-totalisator section prevailed. However, it is stated that pressure of the Caucus may bring about the introduction of a bill favorable to the machine during the August session of the Assembly.

RALPH GOES TO DOUGLAS PARK

George J. Long's Kentucky Derby Candidate Taken to New Training Ground,

Louisville, Ky., April 29.—Hodge's latest trial for the Kentucky Derby was performed over a slushy track. He went a mile and a quarter, the Derby distance, in 2:14. The first half was traversed in :52½, three-quarters in 1:18½, the mile in 1:45½ and the mile and an eighth in 1:58½. As in all of his recent work, he did it in impressive style. He was simply breezing all the way and apparently could have shown sensational racing speed. He is training for the Derby as perfectly as possible. Other work-outs of Derby candidates were:

Ralph—Quarter mile in 27½.

Tener—Mile in 1:53½.

Toronto—Three-quarters in 1:22; first half in 52½; five-eighths in 1:07.

Ralph, George J, Long's Derby candidate, was

Ralph, George J. Long's Derby candidate, was taken from Churchill Downs to Douglas Park today, to give him a change of scene and to work a Derby trial over the course on which Old Rosebud received his training this spring. He was ridden in the trial by jockey Shilling and, went a mile and an eighth over a wet track in 1:56%, pulled up. The fractionals were :12%, :24%, :36, :48%, 1:01%, 1:15, 1:28%, 1:42%, He ran the last mile in 1:44 and was well within himself. Other Derby trials today were:

Al Wornwood—Half mile in 51.

Belloc—Mile and an eighth in 2:00; first mile in 1:45%.

Robinetta—Three-quarters in 1:19%; first half in 51.

SELWIK BEATS NEALON IN SHOW RING.

Toronto, Ont., April 29.—First money in the class for thoroughbred stallions at the Toronto Horse Show today went to the eight-year-old Seiwik, formerly raced in the colors of Amos Turney, but which has been for several seasons in the stud of James Bovaird, of Brampton, Ont. The Suburban winner, Nealon, recently purchased from Barney Schreiber by Robert Davies, of Thorncliffe, was placed second, Martin Doyle, formerly a stable companion of Selwik, was third, Prince Hohenlohe fourth and Gay Boy fifth. Nasbaden, last year's winner, got nothing, on account of lameness, which his owner said was caused by picking up a nail last night. First prize was $125 and the conditions of competition required horses standing for public service in this province, and calculated to improve the type of hunters, saddlers and remounts.

INCREASE IN TAX ONLY TURF ACTION.

Toronto, Ont., April 29.—The session of the Ontario Legislature closed this morning. No action affecting racing was taken during its continuance, with the exception of an increase of the tax on running meetings, from $200 to $500 per day. The bill to incorporate the Haileybury Turf Club up in the Cobalt district was withdrawn, and none was presented for the Queen City Riding and Driving Club. Mr. Pratt's bill to create a racing commission was also withdrawn.

H. E. Springer, Vancouver racing magnate, who was here last week, announced that there would be no sixty-day meeting in British Columbia this year, but that racing could be carried on with a meeting of thirty days' duration.

The Brookdale Stable's most promising King's Plater, Moss Fox, has gone wrong and is out of training.

FIRST OF ENGLISH CLASSICS RUN.

Kennymore Is Returned Winner of Two Thousan Guineas at Newmarket, with Corcyra Second.

London, Eng., April 29.—At Newmarket today, the Two Thousand Guineas, for three-year-old colts and fillies, over the Rowley mile, was won by Sir John Thursby's bay colt Kennymore, by John o' Gaunt—Croceum, Lord Londonderry's chestnut colt Coreyra, by Polymelus—Pearmain, finished second and J. B. Joel's brown colt Black Jester, by Polymelus—Absurdity, was third. The American jockey Frank O'Neill, rode Kennymore, whose winning margin was a short head.

The result was strictly in accordance with last year's public form and the three placed colts are capital young horses of high class. Coreyra defeated Kennymore in the Middle Park Plate last fall, but it was the latter's first start and the experience gained and improvement wrought by his first race was so great that he simply ran away from Coreyra when the two came into opposition again in the Dewhurst Plate at the Newmarket Houghton meeting. It was announced two days before the race that The Tetrarch would not be started for the Two Thousand. This was an intimation that he is in reserve for the Epsom Derby, but it will not be at all surprising if the two successive victories of Kenaymore in the Craven Stakes and Two Thousand Guineas should serve to make him first choice for the Derby. He is now known to be sound and in grand form, while the real condition and progress of The Tetrarch is shadowed by doubt.

FOALS AT CANADIAN FARMS.

The growth of Canadian breeding will probably be stimulated in the near future by the announcement of a $10,000 King's Plate, and when that day comes Thorncliffe Farm will be well equipped for the fray. The ten foals that have already arrived this season will make a grand foundation for a powerful factor in the decision of home-bred events in coming years, and Mr. Davies seems determined to accomplish the double triumph of having the leading stable of Canadian-breds as he now has the strongest combination of foreign-breds carrying the colors of a Canadian owner. The foals so far reported are:

orted are:

Bay colt, by Bannockburn—Sula.

Bay filly, by Detective—Be Ready.

Bay filly, by Detective—Mischief Maker.

Bay filly, by Detective—Wish.

Bay filly, by Orme Shore—Lon D.

Brown filly, by Bannockburn—Minnie G.

Brown filly, by Nealon—Sure Shot.

Chestnut colt, by Detective—Gay Dora.

Chestnut filly, by Detective—Rose Lawrence.

Chestnut filly, by Detective—To.

The Sula colt is a brother to Hamilton.

Chestnut filly, by Detective—Rose Lawrence.
Chestnut filly, by Detective—St, Cecelia.
The Sula colt is a brother to Hamilton. Gay Dora's is the only other colt of the ten, and the six by Detective all greatly resemble their sire. If he has transmitted also his high speed and courage they will be a bunch of champions.
Five other mares at Thorneliff are still due to foal, so that the Canadian-bred division of the stable will be a numerous as well as most interesting lot.
The crop of Canadian-bred youngsters promises to be worthy of the increased opportunities that are to be afforded each year for the owners of homebred stock. Reports from the Valley Farm tell of a gratifying showing in number and quality among the increases in the thoroughbred department. Martimas, Harvey and Charles Edward are the stallions in use, though Harvey's opportunity is coming later than his merits deserved. The following foals are reported, and several mares are still to foal:
Bay colt, by Charles Edward—Shoo Fly.
Bay colt, by Martimas—Placena.
Bay colt, by Wartimas—Placena.
Bay filly, by Martimas—Bae Grouse.
Chestnut colt, by Martimas—Bae Grouse.
Chestnut colt, by Martimas—Bae Grouse.
Chestnut colt, by Martimas—Bae Grouse.
Chestnut filly, by Martimas—Sweet Story.

Among the foals expected are those from the Dis-guise mare. Spanish Maid, by Harvey; from the Star Ruby mare, Sally Cohen, sister to Africander, by Martimas, and from the Martimas mare, Kelpie, by Stanley Fay.—Toronto Globe.

FOALS IN BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 29.—Zahra, by Mazagan—My Beauty (dam of Wheelwright and Superintendent), by Ladas, has foaled a bay filly by Order and will be nated to Ogden. Mildred Shults, by Orvieto, which will shortly foal to Celt, will be sent to the court of Star Shoot. These mares are the property of Messrs. J. O. & G. H. Keene, proprietors of Keeneland, who recently refused an ofter of $4.500 from J. E. Madden for the two mares.

Hal Price Headley reports the following recent foalings at Beaumont Farm: Bay filly by Stalwart—Dentifrice; chestnut filly by Stally by McGee—Princess de Oro: chestnut colt by Maddulo—Tourmaletta; black filly by Ballot—Thought-less; chestnut filly by Ballot—Thought-less; chestnut filly by Ballot—Thought-less; chestnut filly by Ballot—Thought-less; chestnut filly by Ballot—Trange and the property of T. B. Ripy, H. K. Knapp, G. W. J. Bissell, Headley & Miller and Frederick Johnson. They will be mated this season with Jack Atkin, Uncle and Rapid Water.

J. I. Smith reports the following foals, belonging to H. H. Hewitt: Chestnut filly by Ballot—Aviston; bay colt by Sain—Inspiration; bay filly by Starson with Coy Lad.

Barney Schreiber reports the arrival of a chestnut filly by Jack Atkin—Little Indian.

Maj. T. J. Carson reports a chestnut filly by Ferole—Flaxen Hair.

A. L. Hamilton, of Kirklevington Farm, reports a chestnut colt by Olambala—Mexoana, and a bay colt by Olambala—Mexoana, and a bay folly by Hastings. She will be mated this year with Stalwart.

Elegance, belonging to Price McKinney, has foaled a chestnut colt by Superman and will be mated with Disgulse.

APPOINTMENTS EXPECTED AT ONCE.

Lexington. Ky., April 29.—Representative Harry Meyers of Covington, was at the track this aftersoon. He came directly from Frankfort, where he visited Gov. James B. McCreary and he said that the third state racing commission would be announced either today or tomorrow and that the members will be Johnson N. Camden. Charles F. Grainger, Thomas Hart Talbot, now members, and Gol. W. B. Haldeman of Louisville, and Judge Allie Young, of Morehead. Mr. Camden, in all probability. will be the new chairman. Samuel Nuckols, of Versailles, is tipped to be secretary to succeed J. Pelham Johnston, who has made a capable and conscientious official.

LUKE IS SOUNDLY BEATEN

J. N. CAMDEN'S ONE-EYED JUVENILE FAILS TO PLACE IN IDLE HOUR STAKES.

Race Not Truly Run, but Heavy State of Going Is Held Responsible for Luke's Failure-Climber Is the Winner,

Climber Is the Winner,

Lexington, Ky., April 29.—The Idle Hour Stakes, for two-year-olds, at four and one-half furlongs, carrying a value of $1.511 to the winner, was the feature of the Kentucky Association's card this afternoon and it was won by James Butler's Climber, an unbeaten daughter of Voter and Stepping Stone, trained by John Lowe and well ridden by jockey Joe Kederis. Ed Crump was second, half a length away and an equal distance in front of Chalmers, which had only a head the betier of Marion Goosby, with Luke, the odds-on favorite, a poor fifth. The others were at all times outpaced. The race, however, was not truly run. About one hundred yards away from the starting point Ed Crump, which had eighth position at the post, caused a jam of the herses on the inside through which Chalmers, Luke, Marion Goosby and Mex suffered most. Jockeys Taylor, Kederis, Turner, Martin and McCabe shouted warnings to jockey Deronde, according to the statement of starter Harry Morrissey, but he did not heed them and continued to ride hard against them until he had the lead, which he held until well into the stretch, where Climber wore Ed Crump down and beat him out. The judges ordered the suspension of Deronde for the remainder of the meeting. Jockey Taylor said that while the interference had something to do with the defeat of Luke, he believed that it was a dislike for the heavy going that was the chief cause.

Trainer John Lowe said before the race that if it were a fast track he would regard Climber as a certainty, but he did not know just how well she would run in heavy going. In consequence of this race the Breeders' Futurity has a more open aspect and the probabilities are that it will be one of the heaviest betting races of the season.

The wind-broken Hawthorn was in front all the way and won the third race at one mile quite easily from Milton Roblee, though he was whistling like a squeaky bellows when he reached the finish. The good price about Hawthorn was due to the fact that nearly everyone was trying to pic away stumbling and the rider showed bad judgment in forcing his mount at top speed in going up the hill.

Aunt Josie, which in a previous start refused to break, was on her good behavior this afternoon and under energetic handling raced forwardly from the batrier and, ultimately disposing of Chitra during the stretch drive, won well in hand. Chitra outstayed Idiolo, which lost much ground by going wide all the way. Nigra was the choice in this race, but after the first furlong retired and finished in last place.

Grover Hughes showed his old-time good form and had an easy time in winning the fifth race. The Reach was his closest follower at the end.

Ocean Queen, also at odds-on, was the beaten choice in the concluding dash. Her defeat was due to interference, from which she suffered on the first turn when one of the foreguard jumped on her left hind leg and cut into her tendon. Her elimination made it easy for Big Dipper, which at present is enjoying rare form, to win.

Climber came out of the Idle Hour Stakes with several nasty cuts about her legs as a result of the interference from which she suffered soon after the start.

Old Rosebud, favorite for the Kentucky Derby, was given a mile and a quarter trial before today's racing and covered the distance in 2:13½, in the handlest kind of fashion. The gelding appeared to be anxious to run and it took jockey McCabe's best efforts to keep him in restraint.

Messrs, Knapp, Miller, Parsons, Streets and Bull, who have been here since the opening, departed tonight for New York. The Knapp-Hitchcock-Parsons horses will be shipped to New York Saturday in charge of W. Warnke, who will look after them until trainer W. H. Karrick's return from Alken, S. C. Jockey Sumter will go with the horses, but Byrne, who is also under contract to the stable, will remain in Kentucky until after the Churchill Downs meeting, where he will ride for W. G. Yanke. Later he will go east.

According to report, jockey Borel and Roscoe will remain in Kentucky until after the Churchill Downs meeting, where he will ride for W. G. Yanke. Later he will go east. C. S. Wilson, owner of Ivan Gardner, has taken over B. F. Guthrie's subscription in the International Derby to be run at Dorval and will nominate Ivan Gardner, to run in it.

Entry blanks to the Queens County Jockey Club were distributed among the horsemen by representative Al Burlen.

Chairman Milton Young of the Kentucky State Racing Commission today called attention to the fact that a number of owners and some racing officials have a misconception of the rule governing apprentice allowance. It has been so amended that apprentice allowance it has been so amended that apprentice jockeys are entitled to claim the allowance no matter for whom they are riding.

Secretary J. P. Johnston this afternoon gave out a copy of resolutions which were adopted by the Kentucky State Racing Commission upon the death of the late Charles Reed of Gallatin, Tenn., the man who paid $100,000 for St. Blaise, as follows:

"Whereas, Charles Reed died at his home in Gallatin, Tenn., on the 17th day of April, 1914.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Kentucky Racing Commission in meeting assembled that in his death the turf has lost a good and charitable man; he was a breeder of thoroughbred horses, maintained a racing stable for a number of years, and was manager and part owner of the Saratoga race track; and be it further

The volunteer militia bill, which has just passed both houses of congress and been signed by President Wilson, marks one of the longest steps in advance in military legislation that has ever been taken in this country. In effect it provides a first line of defense of 502,000 men backed by a reserve of 300,000. This force would give this country a flying start in any war, even against one of the great military powers. By the time this force could be equipped and organized and sent to the front congrees would be ready to supplement it.

Carranza is balking on mediation, because he is opposed to any compromise with Huerts. Constitutionalists at Chilmahua deny that there is an friction between Carranza and Villa. A detachment of British marines have been dispatched inland to the relief of American refugees. General Maas is reported to be falling back along the line of the railroad to Mexico City with the troops with which he evacuated Vera Cruz. Mexico City has been tranquil since Sunday and there is a general feeling of relief there over the mediation proposals and a hope that they may be successful. Huerta says that aliof the Zapatists have joined the Federal arms, together with other guerilla forces of the interior.
There is a report that Villa and Carranza have agreed to remain mere spectafors of the trouble between Huerta and the United States so long as there is no American invasion of Constitutionalist territory. Refugees from Mexico relate tales of cruelty at the hands of the Mexicans. The Constitutionalists are now in control of Neuvo Laredo, recently exacuated by the Federals. Huerta has provided transportation to Puerto Mexico far all Americans desiring to leave Mexico City. The Japanese government, it develops, refused to act as Huerta's agent at Washington after the severance of diplomatic relation between this country to doe a
